

Sinclair Broadcasting's incredible decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It sickens me.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. They should not be allowed to participate in character assassination of any candidate.

Please stop them from doing this. This is far more damaging to society than an exposed nipple at a football game.

Thank you.
